Winegrower's Notes

This stainless fermented Pinot Gris captures the unique influence of the site of the Croft Vineyard, rising up into the foothills of the coastal range in rural Polk County, near Monmouth, Oregon. The refreshing nose draws you in with crisp pear, tropical fruit, subtle lemon and a hint of honey suckle. In the palate you continue to be captivated by the crisp pear and a strong influence of stone fruits, followed by a wonderful mineral component that is well-balanced with acidity and freshness for a long, bright finish. Pair with halibut in a white wine sauce with capers, mussels in white wine with lemons, trout amandine, albacore salad on a bed of baby spinach, or serve at brunch with Quiche Lorraine. This wine will be a crowd pleaser at any event. Enjoy now through 2017.
